2013 American Homebrewers Association Homebrew Supply Shop Survey

The American Homebrewers Association (AHA) conducted its fourth annual survey of home beer and wine supply retailers in the spring of 2013. The survey's goal is to collect aggregate industry data that is useful to home beer and wine supply retailers and to provide statistics on the industry for the AHA to use when promoting the hobby to the media.

We saw 275 shops respond to the 2013 survey -a $32 \%$ increase from the survey we conducted in 2012. When applicable, this report compares 2013 survey data to the 2012 & 2011 survey data.

The 2013 survey indicates that on the whole shops are doing well. On average, participating shops saw gross revenue increase by $26 \%$ in 2012. For shops that primarily sell homebrew supplies, gross revenue increased on average by $29 \%$.

Retailers are encouraged to contact AHA Business Coordinator Steve Parr (steve@brewersassociation.org; 720.473.7687) with suggestions for improvements to this survey.

2013 Survey Results Follow:

1. In which state is your shop located?

Shops in 47 states, representing every region of the United States responded to the survey.
2. How many years has the shop been open under the current proprietor?

|  | Years |
| :---: | :---: |
| Average | 9.7 |
| Median | 5.0 |

- This is the same average as the 2012 survey.
- $34 \%$ of the respondents ( $37 \%$ in 2012 ) have been in business under the current proprietor for more than ten years.
- $43 \%$ have been open for three years or less ( $34 \%$ in 2012).
- $7 \%$ have been under the current proprietor for less than a year ( $11 \%$ in 2012).
- All of the above indicate considerable growth in new shop openings or changes of ownership.

3. Is the shop the primary source of income for the proprietor?

- There was a slight increase, from $52 \%$ to $54 \%$, in the number of shops indicating that the shop is the primary source of income for the owner. This is the first time in the last four years we have seen any increase in the number of retail shop owners that have their primary income coming from the shop.
- The longer a shop has been in business, the more likely it is to be the primary source of income.

4. Is selling home beverage making supplies the primary source of income for your shop (i.e. do sales of homebrew/winemaking supplies make up the majority of your revenue)?

- Some businesses sell homebrew/home winemaking supplies despite the fact that it is not their primary business (e.g. hardware or gardening stores that also carry homebrewing supplies).
- According to the survey respondents, those types of businesses make up nearly $29 \%$ of homebrew retailers, about the same level as 2012.
- Shops that answered "No" indicated a wide variety of products including hydroponic systems, beer, wine, tobacco, draft systems and supplies for cheese-making and distilling. On average $22.1 \%$ of their total sales revenue come from homebrew/winemaking supplies.

5. How many square feet is your business, including all storage and office space, and what percentage of your total space is dedicated to retail?
